Ramsey Park is one of the area's finest assets that draws people from a wide area each year and is an experience for all ages to enjoy all the seasons of the year.

The 256 acres of natural beauty, miles of hiking trails, Redwood River, Ramsey Creek, Falls, zoo, picnic areas, playground equipment areas and campground are only part of what makes this park an attractive destination spot for so many.

Friends of the Park have partnered with the City of Redwood Falls to complete several projects and improvements throughout the park.

Some of the past improvements include:

"THE FALLS OVERLOOK"

"THE ZEB GRAY SHELTER"

"RIVER WALKWAY PATH"

IN THE ZOO AREA ALONG THE RIVER

Other past improvements in the Park include:

- 🌲 Campground Upgrades
- 🌲 New Picnic Tables & Benches throughout the Park
- 🌲 Swayback Bridge Renovations
- 🌲 New Playground Equipment

Future Improvements include:

Ramsey Park --

Lower Shelter Plaza (Landscaping and Plaza Area) - 2016

Ramsey Park --

Matching Funds to assist with a grant that would include: Trail Enhancements and bathroom improvements.

"TRAIL RENOVATIONS"

"ZOO RENOVATIONS"
